TIONESTA, Dec. 27, 1871.

The Forest county sourts are now in ession, Hon. Wm. P. Jenks, recently elected judge, preciding. The most important ease for trial is that of Commonwealth against William Barnhart, who is under indictment for the murder of Turzer, in Howe township, in September last Turner was found dead in the woods with gunshet wounds in his head and neck and sireumstances poluting to Barabart as the sae who shot him, he was arrested and committed for trial. Judge Jenks, who before his election was of counsel for the presecution, and therefore disqualifled from sitting, has telegraphed Judge Wetmore, of Warren, to hold the Oper and Terminer for the case He is expected this afternoon, DRY and the jury will probably be empanelled this evening. Hos. S. P. Johnson of Warren, and W. W. Mason, Beq. Dis triet Attorney appear for the Commonwealth, and Major B. J. Beid, of your city, has been assigned by the court, to act as council for the prisoner, in connection with S. D. Irwin, E q., of this place. The defense. I understand, will be mainly that the defendant is a mono-maniso. This town is beautifully located, but its growth is slow as yet. A bridge is sadly needed to connect the town with the O. O. & A. B. R. R. on the opposite side of the river. At this season, when ice is running, it is difficult and often dangerous ferrying, but George S. Hunter, that prince of ferrymen, is always on hand to see his passengers safe over.
